📍 Day 7 Trois-Rives - Rafting

Are you ready to live the exciting experience of white water rafting? If so, you'll certainly be amazed by this fantastic expedition which spreads over two full days of adventure in the wild nature of the Mauricie region. At the end of the first day, you'll reach the campsite on the shore of the mighty Mattawin River. You'll then take advantage of a delicious feast of salmon cooked over a huge campfire. After the second day of white water rafting, you'll return to the Adventure Centre and to the comfort of modern life. You'll indeed spend the night in a cozy but modern room at the Auberge de la Rivière Mattawin. (2B, L, D in STD) (2B, 2L, D in SUP)

📍 Day 12 Jacques-Cartier National Park

The drive leads you along Charlevoix's rocky coastline where mountains spectacularly plunged into the salted waters of the St-Lawrence River. Your destination: the Jacques-Cartier National Park which features a remarkable landscape characterized by contrasts: mountainous uplands fractured by steep-sided valleys. In the forest where yellow birch rubs shoulders with sugar maples and black spruce, nature inspires peace and respect. Close to 100 km of trails will enable you to discover its countless treasures (spectacular belvederes, thick forests, refreshing waterfalls, etc.). You'll have the privilege of spending two nights in a cozy cottage located in the heart of the park. (B day 12 in STD)
